

SUBMIT AN ARTICLE

Aims and Scope

Journal of Art and Architecture Studies (ISSN: 2383-1553) is an international, peer reviewed, open access journal . Fulltext of of original researches, reviews and case studies are published twice a year (biannually) on the internet.

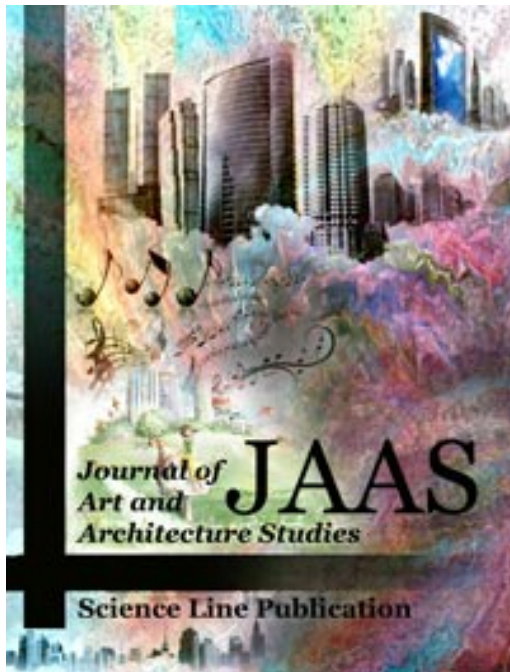

JAAS is dedicated for professionals to focus on interdisciplinary studies of artists, planners, architectures, and its affiliated disciplines. The journal aims to promote relationships between academia and community and technical groups, the day-to-day world of policy, and human welfare thinkers with reporting challenges and studies on urban planning, regional development, architecture designs, music, graphical works, painting, handcraft studies, and other branches of art.

Art majors

- Visual arts fields (ceramics, drawing, painting, collage, decollage, assemblage, installation, calligraphy, sculpture, printmaking, design, crafts, handcraft)

- Performing arts fields (music, theatre, film, dance, graphical work, photography, video, filmmaking, as well as literature, and other media such as interactive media)
- Applied arts (industrial, graphic, fashion and interior designs, decorative art and functional art)

Architecture majors

- Restoration, rehabilitation and intervention of architectonic and urban heritage.
- Urban and land structure analysis. Cities system and metropolitan areas.

- Urbanization and building models and morphologies.
- Land and urban planning
- Urban History
- Land use, housing planning and social integral housing, etc.
- Urban mobility transport management.
- Land organization.
- Urban ecology
- Urban environment and sustainability
- Environmental behavior of buildings and urban systems
- Urban and environmental valuation

- Information city and society
- Geographic and land information systems
- Urban representation